RE: Applications for JCSMA Collaboration Award for School Libraries and School or Community Organizations

Nominations are now being accepted for the Jefferson County School Media Association's Collaboration Award for School Libraries and School/Community Organizations. The library media specialist nominated for this award MUST be a current member of JCSMA.

The purpose of this award is to recognize an outstanding collaboration between a school or community organization (PTO, PTA, PTSA, public library, rotary club, etc.) and a school library media specialist, which advances the role of the school library media center in the educational program of the school. Applications will be considered for collaborative endeavors carried out during the 2009-2010 school year.

The librarian and organization selected as the recipients of the 2010 award will be announced at the spring meeting of the Jefferson County School Media Association.

Each nomination must be accompanied by a detailed letter describing the collaboration and its impact on the role of the school library media center in the educational program of the school.

THE ENCLOSED NOMINATION FORM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION
